LEARNING TO LISTEN SOUNDS: FARM SOUNDS

Presenter:

Michelle Parfitt, MA, CCC-SLP, LSLIS Cert. AVEd

Wednesday, January 11

9:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Auditory-Oral and Auditory-Verbal teachers often use a specific set of strategies called Learning to Listen Sounds in the early stages of listening and spoken language development.

- Discover easy and fun ways to encourage your child's listening skills development at home
- Learn the importance of using Learning to Listen Sounds to develop spoken language skills
- Explore natural techniques to incorporate Learning to Listen Sounds into everyday interactions
- Meet other parents and their babies with hearing loss
- Get support and encouragement from other parents and DePaul professionals

To register, please contact Kayla M. Madden and let us know if childcare is needed: 412-924-1012 or kaylam@depaulinst.com.

SAVE THE DATE:
Our next program is February 8!

The Baby and Parent Group is provided free of charge by DePaul School for Hearing and Speech for parents, grandparents and caregivers of babies with hearing loss. Bring your baby to the workshop; learn strategies to promote your baby's listening and spoken language; and connect with professionals whose expertise is hearing loss. We encourage newcomers to attend. Childcare is available for siblings.
